IF WE ALL WORK TOGETHER AND FOLLOW THE RULES, WE WILL SURELY HAVE A BLESSED TIME AT THIS YEAR'S CONFERENCE. MAY GOD CONTINUE TO BLESS EACH OF YOU!

COUNSELORS' GUIDELINES

In view of the importance of conduct issues, the role of the counselors becomes extremely pronounced and important. The role of a good counselor, during the weekend of the conference is very rewarding. As we know, this will certainly not be a vacation because of the welfare of the youth whose responsibility we have assumed for this weekend. To make it easy for you to do your duty while at the conference and to prevent critical reflections upon the cause of Christ, it will be necessary to closely screen the youth that you bring to the conference.

IF DURING THE YEAR PRECEDING THE CONFERENCE, A YOUTH HAS NOT DEMONSTRATED HIGH CHRISTIAN MORAL STANDARDS AND CHARACTER, WE ASK THAT SUCH YOUTH BE LEFT AT HOME. PLEASE GIVE CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE ENCLOSED DECORUM SHEET AS A GUIDELINE FOR YOUR BENEFIT. IF A YOUTH IS NOT ENDORSED BY THE LOCAL LEADERSHIP, THE MINISTER, THE ELDERS, OR THOSE IN CHARGE OF THE CONGREGATION, WE ASK THAT THIS YOUTH BE LEFT AT HOME.

We would like to urge everyone attending the conference to make plans to remain through Sunday morning worship services. We would like to close with a mass worship service. Please make plans to be in attendance until the conference ends.

PAGEANT GUIDELINES

Guidelines for the Annual Mississippi State Youth Conference Pageant

It is the purpose of this part of the youth conference to stimulate and promote that inner Christian ability in every youth to a higher ground. Through Christian competitions, each one should recognize the talent GOD has given us for the strengthening of the Body of Christ and for His honor and glory.

I. REGISTRATION

- A. The counselors of all youth competing must mail the complete and appropriate information to: The Mississippi State Youth Conference, Attention: Pageant Coordinator.
- B. The counselors should do all registering. No youth should or will be allowed to compete if he/she is not under a counselor. Youth should be actively involved at their local congregation. Youth may have letters of recommendations from the community, school, counselor, etc., but the spiritual leadership of said youth's congregation has final decision as to whether or not said youth may represent that congregation at the state and national conference. The minister or elders have the final authority as to said youth's participation and representing that congregation.
- C. Registration may include letters for contestants from church counselors, ministers, school counselors, or principals. Whoever writes a letter must identify the position of authority he or she holds to qualify the letter. LETTERS MUST BE TYPED! NOTE: Bonus of three (3) additional points will be given for sending not less than two (2) letters of recommendations, five points for all three recommendations. If no letters are received, the contestant cannot compete. If letters are sent in after the deadline (for whatever reason), no points will be awarded for those letters. Counselors and contestants must assure that letters are on time.

II. AGE/QUALIFICATION

- A. The age qualification is from 13 to 20 years (See Division section).
- B. Married youth, as well as, youth with children (both male and female) are disqualified from participating in MSYC pageant.

III. DRESS

- A. If a contestant desires to wear a special outfit for his/her talent competition or performance, this is allowable. Youth should be dressed in said outfit when time to go on stage. After performance, there will be time to change into formal attire. Judges will be notified that costumes or special dress are part of the performance. Dress should not be too extreme, lewd, or offensive.

- B. Formal wear can be worn throughout performance, if desired. When winners are announced, contestants should already be dressed in formal wear, ready to accept awards. We recommend that all young men wear ties with formal wear.

IV. DIVISION

- A. There will be two (2) divisions: Division A (ages 13-15) and Division B (ages 16- 20. Please make sure that all contestants are the correct age for the category that they are competing as this can cause problems for them should they advance to the National Conference.

Division A: Miss Mississippi State Congeniality
Mr. Mississippi State Congeniality

Division B: Miss Mississippi State Youth Conference
Mr. Mississippi State Youth Conference

- B. Reign of Winners:

1. Reign of winners in Division A, will be for one year. Those who do not win in this division may compete again in this division until he/she either wins at the national level or exceeds the age limit. Youth may aspire for Division B, upon reaching the required age.

2. Reign of winners in Division B, will be for one year. Those who do not win in this division may compete again in this division until he/she either wins at the national level or exceeds the age limit.

V. INTRODUCTION OF YOUTH COMPETING

- A. Counselors must mail registration form (see attached form) in by or before April 30, 2023 to Mississippi State Youth Conference, Attention: Pageant Coordinator, with the necessary information: position competing for, telephone number, birth date, local congregation, talent to be displayed, speech topic with all information legible (easy to read). This will ensure proper introductions.
- B. When it is time to compete, the moderator will introduce the contestant, only as “Contestant Number ____”, and the contestant will then formally begin their performance. WE SPECIFICALLY REQUEST THAT THE CONTESTANT NOT TELL HIS/HER NAME NOR WHICH CONGREGATION THEY ARE REPRESENTING! EX. "GOOD EVENING... I AM CONTESTANT NO. _ AND THIS EVENING I WILL BE SPEAKING ON THE SUBJECT....." If the talent is to be displayed first, the youth should notify the judges that this is being done. If the speech is given first, the youth should say at the completion of the speech, "And now for my talent, I would like to..." and then proceed to display their talent.

VI. JUDGING

- A. There will be five (5) judges approved by the Mississippi State Youth Conference Board. The judges will be members of the churches of Christ.
- B. Judges will decide winners by marking their points on the score sheet for individual contestants. Scores will be computed during the performance of contestants. Upon reaching the completion of computation of scores, the winner's name will be placed in a sealed envelope to be announced at the program's finale.
- C. Judges should be knowledgeable in the following: Christian values; music performance; drama; and speech delivery. Also, judges must be able to stay throughout the entire phase of the program, so as to listen to all contestants and judge fairly. Judges should be non-partisan to ensure fairness at every level of competition.
- D. Each contestant will be judged on the following:
  - 1) Personal appearance. Indecent exposure is prohibited. No points will be earned for such appearance. This includes no low necklines, no halter-type dresses, tops, etc., no high splits above the knee, and no tight fitting attire. Please note that the dress code will be strictly enforced and judges will have knowledge of what is presentable and suitable attire and will judge accordingly.
  - 2) Speech, content, delivery, originality and spiritual message.
  - 3) Poise
  - 4) Personality
  - 5) Special talent displayed (with a spiritual message)
- E. A point system will be used whereby a contestant may receive from one (1) to five (5) points in each category:
  - 1 point - poor
  - 2 points - fair

- 3 points - good
- 4 points - very good
- 5 points - outstanding

A total of 25 maximum points may be obtained, plus the extra points for registering letters on time. In the event of a tie, judges will render the tie breaking decision. Each contestant will be called on again to appear before the audience and judges. A relatively easy question on current affairs will be asked each finalist. The contestant will then have to respond. The judges will determine which contestant gave the best response. We are asking that the previous year's winners be present to turn over their reign as well as assist in the crowning of the new winners during the awards ceremony.

- F. ALL DISAGREEMENTS, DISPUTES, OR OBJECTIONS SHOULD BE BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATOR, PAGEANT COORDINATOR OR MEMBERS OF THE BOARD. THEY WILL INVESTIGATE AND MAKE THE FINAL DECISION.

VII. CONTESTANTS PERFORMANCE

- A. Contestants MUST compete by presenting A SPEECH ON THE CONFERENCE THEME AND A TALENT. SPEECHES MAY ALSO BE ON ANY OF THE SUB-TOPICS. The talent competition may include a dramatic reading, music performance, composition, craft display, etc. Judges will allow contestants six (6) minutes to present his/her speech and talent using the time to contestant's best advantage. However, contestants will be penalized points for going over the time limit. One point will be subtracted from a contestant's score for each minute over the time limit.
- B. Contestants should strive to have as much individual performance as possible. No other person(s) may vocalize in said performance or have an active part to lend additional performance credit to the contestant competing. Only one person is competing as an individual and not as a group, partners, etc. Check with Sis. Barbara Davis if there is doubt as to how another person(s) may be used. All extras must be silent and active as little as possible.
- C. PROPS: A voice recording on a tape recorder and recorded background music may be used in moderation. Props should be kept to a bare minimum, if at all. Youth should not have to decorate the stage with props in an attempt to impress the audience and judges. If a youth does use props in performing, there will only be one (1) minute allowed for set-up of props and one (1) allowed for removal of props. The removal must be done smoothly, quietly and handled cooperatively. Only one minute can be afforded, and anyone going over one minute for set-up or removal will lose one (1) point for every 30 seconds overtime.

- D. Props should be cleared with Sis. Barbara Davis and the Conference Coordinating Committee prior to April 30, 2023 by sending information to the registration mailing address.
- E. Contestants must submit a separate letter stating what their performance will consist of. EXAMPLE: "TALENT": What are you going to do? Be specific giving details! (All information will be held in confidence with the Pageant Committee Members). "DRAMITIZATION": A copy of the selection must be sent to compete; not complying with these requests will result in your disqualification. Original and spiritual talents are greatly encouraged. Please refrain from morbid skits such as suicide, murder, drunkenness, etc. We do not want to glorify something that the scriptures condemn.
- F. You must state in 100 words or more why you desire the title for which you are competing.

Completed Pageant Registration MUST contain:

1. A completed pageant MSYC registration form submitted no later than April 30, 2023. Please be sure that all contestant information is legible and complete so that it can be used later when obtaining bios of all contestants. (Ex. In stating contestant's school, please be sure to give the correct city that school is located in.)
2. Letters of recommendation from Elders, Ministers, Deacons, Congregational Youth Workers, School Counselors, Principals or Teachers ONLY. All letters MUST be on official congregation or school letterhead. HANDWRITTEN AND FORM LETTERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
3. A 4X6 or 5X7 good quality head shot photo.
